

LIFT International is a faith based organisation that works to strengthen justice systems, support survivors, and hold perpetrators accountable for crimes of human trafficking, modern slavery and sexual exploitation. Our work focuses on identifying and assisting victims and survivors of these serious crimes and prevention through prosecution.

LIFT International partners with governments, local organisations, law enforcement, and international agencies to increase transparency and hold perpetrators accountable. We are lawyers, criminal investigators, and social workers all united by our desire to be strategic and focused on long-term impacts.

We believe in prevention through prosecution and our partnership. We work to disrupt organised crime, secure fair sentences, and put traffickers out of business because we know justice is a powerful deterrent. We advocate for victims and survivors of sexual exploitation to protect their rights and increase their access to justice.
