

DARE Network (Drug and Alcohol Recovery and Education) on the Thai/Myanmar Border is looking for a grant researcher and grant writer, on-going.

- DARE Network has worked for 25 years on the Thailand/Myanmar border with the displaced people from Myanmar providing non-medical, culturally appropriate addiction treatment and prevention education. DARE Network is a grassroots community-based organization founded in Thailand for the benefit of communities in Thailand.
- As a community-based local organization DARE Network relies on International Grants and Donations from private organizations, foundations and individuals.
- DARE Network is the only organization providing comprehensive, effect, innovative and cutting-edge programming for substance abuse in the targeted area.
- Addiction rates among war affected people is exponentially higher than the general population of all countries in the world.
- DARE Network's success rates are steadily at or around 60% non-relapse compared to 25-30% in North America and Europe.

DARE Network: www.darenetwork.com

The applicant:

- Experienced grant research and writing for grass roots community-based organizations
- Knowledge of the ongoing situation on the Thai/Myanmar border
- Can work remotely
- Good communicator and willing to work with local staff

The organization:

- Provide written and verbal background and successful previous grant applications to the Grant Writer
- Willing to meet in person or via video communication
- Provide all documentation to the Grant Writer, as needed
- Provide financial details necessary to the Grant Writer for any proposals

Compensation to be negotiated based on experience, location and results.

Please send expressions of interest to DARE Network. drugfree@darenetwork.com