

Chiang Rai Flood Response

Community Outreach Activities

1. Background:

Save the Children Thailand plans to provide essential support to children, youths, and vulnerable families in the Ampor Muang Chiang Rai, Mae Sai, Mae Fah Luang, Mae Chan, Wiang Pa Pao, Phaya Mengrai, Khun Tan, Chiang Khong, Thoeng, and Wiang Kaen districts of Chiang Rai, ensuring that these populations receive necessary assistance in the short-term while simultaneously contributing to long-term resilience by strengthening education and child protection systems within the target communities.

SCT is committed to supporting the mental health and psychosocial well-being of communities affected by the flood. As part of this effort, we are implementing a Psychological First Aid (PFA) program to provide immediate psychological support to individuals experiencing distress. The consultant will assist in designing and carrying out a community outreach strategy to raise awareness and deliver PFA services.

2. Purpose of the Consultancy:

The purpose of this consultancy is to develop and implement an effective community outreach strategy for the delivery of Psychological First Aid (PFA) activities. The consultant will support the mobilization of local communities and ensure that PFA services are delivered in a sensitive and effective manner.

3. Scope of Work:

The consultant will be responsible for:

- Reviewing the current PFA program and identifying key gaps and opportunities for improved community engagement.
- Developing a detailed community outreach activity, including target groups, key messages, and engagement activities.
- Designing and implementing community outreach activities, ensuring they are aligned with best practices in mental health and psychosocial support.

- Ensuring the participation of diverse groups (e.g., women, youth, marginalized populations) in PFA outreach efforts.
